

Our World Is Beautiful

No one ever sees,
No one ever comprehends,
That this amazing world we live in,
Is one day going to end.
No more autumn leaves,
No more traffic jams,
No snowflakes landing on your nose,
No reservoirs or dams,
No more midnight mass,
No more Buckyballs,
No Hapax Legomenon,
No redwoods standing tall,
No more swimming lessons,
No more raging war,
No music to lighten our spirits,
No more closing doors,
No more acts of gratitude,
No more kindness or hate,
No aquariums full of fish,
No more movies to rate,
But pollution will still exist,
There'll still be CO₂,
The greenhouse effect will still linger,
And it's caused by me and you.
So let's embrace this beautiful world,
Let's try to hit pause,
Our world will one day be destroyed,
And we will be the cause.
